17.1(2) Description. Institutions of higher education in Iowa submit proposals to the coordinating council for eight-week summer institute programs to upgrade the skills of Iowa teachers in the subject areas of mathematics, science, foreign languages, and other areas indicated by the state department of education as teaching shortage areas. 17.1(3) Definitions.

“Coordinating council” is the Iowa coordinating council for post-high school education which is a cooperative association of representatives from Iowa independent colleges and universities, area community colleges, vocational schools, public universities, specialized and proprietary schools, educational radio stations, and the Iowa public broadcasting network and the Iowa college aid commission.

“Institution of higher education” is an Iowa college or university accredited by the north central association of colleges (NCA).

“Teaching shortage area” is a specific subject area for which there is a shortage of qualified teachers as identified by the Iowa department of education.

- c.* A comprehensive fiscal report and related documentation.

17.1(7) Disbursement of funds. The college aid commission disburses 50 percent of the grant award at the beginning of the first session of the institute and the balance at the conclusion of the institute, provided the coordinating council certifies that the institution complied with the terms and conditions of the grant and all reporting requirements have been met.

17.1(8) Annual evaluation. The coordinating council prepares an annual summary of summer institute activities including an assessment of the extent to which the program is improving the quality of instruction in critical teaching areas.
